QV Group Scholarship Programme

Every year outstanding full-time Property Valuation undergraduate students join QV and Darroch Limited's graduate programme. They are selected from New Zealand Universities throughout the country. Our programme recognises and rewards those who excel in their studies, succeeded in extra-curricular activities, are seeking to pursue a career in property valuation, and have a positive attitude to the opportunities QV and Darroch Limited can offer them.

We recognise the future prosperity of the company is linked to the performance capability and well-being of our people. We can offer you...

- A competitive remuneration package
- An excellent range of opportunities to further your career
- Great support and development as you progress
- Organisational programmes that allow you to have a great work life balance

Our QV Group Scholarship provides students with:

- Financial assistance towards their final year of study (up to $3,500)
- An assigned mentor for their last year of study
- The opportunity to gain work experience during a student's final year of study
- Employment for the student on completion of their studies

Eligibility

To be eligible for the programme you must:

- Be entitled to work in New Zealand upon completion of their studies.
- Major in property at one of the following Universities; Auckland University, Massey University in Albany or Palmerston North and Lincoln University.
- Intend to become qualified as a valuer.
- Provide evidence of success outside of the university environment.
- Produce evidence that you have been accepted for your final year of study. (Only required upon acceptance of the scholarship.)

Recipients need to pass all necessary papers to gain the property qualification. The award may be withdrawn or suspended at any time if a recipient fails to make satisfactory academic progress. Recipients may also have to co-operate with promotional publicity related to the scholarship.
